INTERNATIONALE
DE DIFFERDANGE

A photograph of three young children in a classroom. They are looking at a display board on a wooden wall. The board features various colorful drawings and numbers. The child in the foreground is a boy with short brown hair, wearing a red shirt, looking up with a smile. Behind him is another boy in a green shirt, also looking up. To the right, a girl with dark hair is partially visible, looking at the board. The display board has several items pinned to it, including a drawing of a tree, a drawing of a cloud with rain, a drawing of a rainbow, and a large number '7'. There are also some numbers and symbols on a blue strip of paper. The background shows more of the classroom, including a brick wall and some other display items.
